

Grade 4 T2 Final Review

An email is a method of sending digital messages over the internet.

Skype is an example of an online video calling tool.

Social media websites allow users to share information and connect with others.

Online chat rooms allow people to communicate in real-time.

The purpose of a web browser is to search for information on the internet.

Google Docs is an example of an online collaborative tool.

Google Drive is an online tool that allows you to create and edit documents, spreadsheets, and presentations.

Sharing personal information with strangers is NOT recommended while communicating online.

A username is a unique name used to identify yourself online.

The purpose of a password is to protect personal information from unauthorized access.

Facebook Messenger is an online tool that allows you to send and receive instant messages.

Online shopping allows you to purchase items from websites.

"Spam" refers to junk email or unwanted messages.

www.example.com is an example of a website address.

The purpose of a search engine is to find and display relevant information from the internet.

Microsoft Word is NOT a social media platform.

Online forums are platforms where users can communicate and discuss various topics.

Dropbox is an online tool that allows you to store and access files from anywhere with an internet connection.

YouTube is an example of a video-sharing platform.

To stay safe while communicating online, it is important to be careful about what you share and who you communicate with.